GDP Growth

Real GDP was strong last quarter because the inflation adjustment was unusually low.

Consumer Spending Growth

Trend to slower growth, but not a sudden collapse.

Real Inventory Change

Weakness Q1 contributed to soft economy last winter.

Capital Spending Growth

Capital spending was also weak last winter but now looking better.
U.S. Export Growth

Strong upward trend due to strong overseas economies and...

Value of U.S. Dollar

dollar headed down; more to come.

Interest Rates

Mortgage rates surprisingly steady.

Stock Market

Stocks are doing OK despite the turmoil.
Oregon Personal Income

- Oregon
- U.S.

Washington Taxable Sales

- Faster growth than in U.S.

Poverty Rate in Oregon

- Not much change lately.

Poverty Rate in Washington

- States' strong economy is helping.